Welcome! Fáilte! Fair fa ye! Croeso!

The Independent Commission for Reconciliation and Information Recovery (ICRIR) has been set up to provide information to families, victims and survivors of Troubles-related deaths and serious injury, and to work towards reconciliation for all parties.

I accepted the role of Chief Commissioner because I believe this is worth doing. All those affected by the Troubles/Conflict need the legacy of the past to be properly dealt with. Previous attempts to address this have failed but that doesn't mean we can simply give up.

The importance of reconciliation is known by all those who have been affected by the Troubles and its legacy. For each and every person, that will mean something different. I want the Commission to best serve the people of Northern Ireland and beyond.

I believe we have a real opportunity here to deliver the answers that people are looking for. To do this, we need to build an independent organisation that's founded on integrity, expertise, and fairness.

Best wishes,

Sir Declan Morgan, Chief Commissioner

Who we are

The Independent Commission for Reconciliation and Information Recovery is an independent organisation that has been established to recover information about Troubles-related deaths and serious injuries to families, victims, and survivors and to promote reconciliation.

We are building the Commission and hiring more staff now that we have begun receiving cases.

We are building a values-led organisation. We operate with integrity, impartiality, openness, accountability, and respect, as set out in our Code of Conduct. This is reflected in our fair and open recruitment processes. We encourage people to join us across all backgrounds, communities and faiths to help us deliver.

The Commission is primarily based in Belfast, with further operational sites in Northern Ireland and London. Travel to all locations will be required, but hybrid working arrangements will help us support a range of flexible working patterns. This is an exciting opportunity to join an organisation with a unique and vital remit.

The Commission is formed of seven Commissioners, the Chief Commissioner, Sir Declan Morgan, the Chief Executive Officer, Louise Warde Hunter and the Commissioner for Investigations, Peter Sheridan, as well as four Non-Executive Commissioners to provide challenge and scrutiny to the executive team.

We are committed to creating a diverse and inclusive workplace. We welcome applications from all communities and backgrounds, including underrepresented groups. We value diversity in our workforce as it enhances our ability to serve the communities of Northern Ireland and the United Kingdom.

ICRIR's Code of Conduct

- Integrity
- Impartiality
- Openness
- Accountability
- Respect

The Commission's work will:

- Investigate deaths and other serious Troubles-related incidents, where requested, including deciding whether a criminal investigation should be part of the investigation.
- As part of investigations, give the opportunity for individuals to make personal statements on how the incidents have affected them.
- Require that any information necessary for our work is provided by PSNI, the security services, the Northern Ireland Office or any other public body and require that any person comes to the Commission to provide information.
- Use police powers, where appropriate, including to secure evidence, arrest, and question suspects.
- Produce and publish reports setting out the findings that have been determined from the investigations and addressing questions that have been raised by those making the request.
- Refer deaths and other serious Troubles-related incidents to prosecutors, where appropriate.
- Produce a record of deaths that were caused by incidents during the Troubles, and strive, through all it does, to promote reconciliation.

In addition to its principal objective to promote reconciliation, the Commission has agreed that a trauma-informed approach should be taken in all its work and that it should follow three essential principles:

- Compliance with the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR);
- Respect for the principles of the 1998 Belfast Good Friday Agreement; and
- Focus on providing useful information to those affected by the Troubles.

About the role

Job Title

Investigation & Intelligence Analyst

Band

Salary

£46,000

Location

Belfast or London.

Our main operational base will be Belfast, with an operational site in London. Staff are split across both the London and Belfast Offices; therefore, regular travel will be required as will regular attendance in the office. You may also work from your home address, in line with the Commission's approach on hybrid working and with the agreement of your line manager.

Working Pattern

Full time, part time and flexible working. The role may include occasional out-of-core-hours working.

Contract Type

This role is offered on a permanent contract. Full time and part time roles are available.

Security Level

Applicants for this role must be willing to undergo and attain DV clearance (if not already cleared) and attain and maintain STRAP accreditation. STRAP is a regime that regulates access to sensitive intelligence material which requires more protective handling than is afforded by the standard arrangements for government assets. For this Security Level, applicants are required to be a UK National. This is not an ICRIR requirement, but a condition required by the UK Cabinet Office rules based on the nature of information which the role holder will be regularly accessing.

Please find further information on NSV (National Security Vetting): National security vetting: clearance levels - GOV.UK

Expected Interview Date

Week commencing 20th July 2026

The role

We are recruiting Investigation & Intelligence Analysts to be part of the Independent Commission for Reconciliation and Information Recovery (ICRIR). We are looking for Analysts to work as part of the integrated investigations team. Working as part of this team, the Analyst will support the overall mission of the ICRIR to provide information to families, victims and survivors of Troubles-related deaths and serious injury, and in doing so fulfil its principal objective of promoting reconciliation.

As part of the Analysis Unit, the post holder will work under the supervision of the Senior Analyst.

The end-to-end journey of an investigation is all about the people who will eventually benefit from information recovery. At every stage requesting individuals of families must be able to understand what is happening and what progress is being made. A key difference to the Commissions approach is that a request must be made before the commission can carry out its investigations. These requests can include specific questions that the requesting individual or family wish to see addressed during the investigative work. We will seek answers to questions by examining all existing material, including that which might not have been disclosed or made public during and previous fact-finding.

The Analyst will have access to and become proficient in interrogating various databases and information sources utilised by the ICRIR which they will use to complete a range of analytical products to support investigations and performance.

The Investigation & Intelligence Analyst will also work closely with Senior Investigating Officers (SIOs) and their teams to assist in identifying and progressing possible lines of enquiry and presenting complex case data.

We welcome the unique contribution diverse applicants bring and do not discriminate based on culture, ethnicity, race, nationality or national origin, age, sex, gender identity or expression, religion or belief, disability status, sexual orientation, educational or social background or any other factor.

We are happy to discuss the role and answer any questions you may have. Please feel free to contact us for an informal conversation by emailing us at recruitment@icrir.independent-inquiry.uk

Key Responsibilities

- Produce analytical products, written and/or verbal briefings and presentations to the investigations team and Senior Leadership Team (SLT) to provide clear and precise evidence-based advice and guidance
- Prepare, deliver and present analytical products for use in court proceedings, if required.
- Utilise existing data systems including sensitive national police systems and other open and closed intelligence sources to support the preparation and delivery of intelligence products and reports, to clearly and accurately inform decision making.
- Provide analytical support at a tactical and operational level.
- Establish and maintain networks with internal partners and external agencies to ensure that key requirements are met.
- Maintain and share awareness of innovation within intelligence analysis to ensure implementation of latest techniques and tactics, best practice, and information relevant to the role
- Adhere to all legal frameworks, key working principles, policies and guidance relevant to the role.

Person Specification

Essential Criteria

- Experience of working as an analyst within investigations in a law enforcement environment with a College of Policing Intelligence Professionalisation Programme (IPP) Certification (or working towards or equivalent qualification) or similar OR experience of investigations in a civilian context with equivalent qualification.
- A track record of Analysis with information and intelligence management with a comprehensive understanding of the National Intelligence Model (NIM)
- Experience of communicating effectively with the ability to present information and intelligence and be able to provide recommendations to various stakeholders to ensure understanding and support decision making
- Able to proactively develop effective working relationships with colleagues, partners and other stakeholders.
- Skilled in the use of IT packages including the Microsoft Office package, systems and/or databases involved in analysing, interpreting, record-keeping, storing and presenting data and or intelligence.
- Ability to identify and scope a problem to effectively develop Terms of Reference and deliver analytical products.
- Ability to research, analyse and assimilate large volumes of complex data.
- Ability to appropriately prioritise and plan own workload
- A high degree of self-motivation, personal responsibility and organisation
- Ability to maintain the highest levels of integrity, discretion and confidentiality
- Ability to demonstrate the values set out in the ICRIR Code of Conduct
- Willingness to be assessed against the requirements for DV/STRAP clearance, if not already cleared. Please find further information on NSV (National Security Vetting): National security vetting: clearance levels - GOV.UK

Desirable Criteria

- Knowledge and experience of operating in Northern Ireland
- Experience of working with highly sensitive information and intelligence

We are looking for proactive, intellectually curious, and enthusiastic individuals. A successful candidate will:

- Be highly adaptable and flexible, adjusting to the requirements and strategic direction of the organisation
- Have outstanding interpersonal skills to build trusted relationships with internal teams
- Be highly organised, efficient, and flexible as well as able to juggle competing priorities effectively whilst working in a dynamic environment
- Proactively identify opportunities to build organisation-wide knowledge and improve processes

The Recruitment Process

All applications for employment are considered strictly on the basis of merit. This job description should not be taken as constituting conditions of employment. You should consider if you can meet the values in the ICRIR Code of Conduct, especially in relation to any conflicts of interest that you might have. More information can be found at ICRIR Code of Conduct – Independent Commission for Reconciliation & Information Recovery

Additional information received after the closing date will not be considered. Failure to provide sufficient information in support of an application prior to the closing date will not be considered as grounds for an appeal if an applicant is not shortlisted for interview.

The selection and interview process will consist of two stages as detailed below:

Stage 1: Sift

Your application will be reviewed against the criterion listed in the Person Specification above.

Please provide a CV setting out your career history, with key responsibilities and achievements. You will be asked to provide reasons for any gaps.

On your online application, you will be asked to complete 2 questions which will be used to sift your application and determine who will be invited to interview.

Please indicate your location preference for the role – either Belfast or London.

Stage 2: Exercise and Interview

Successful candidates who meet the required standard at sift will be invited to interview. Please note, the interview will consist of situational and competency-based questions and candidates should familiarise themselves with how to answer giving STAR responses (the panel will be looking for the scenario, the task to be completed, the action you took and the result/outcome)

For candidates proceeding to interview, candidates will be asked to complete a Declaration of Interest form. Please note, candidates will not be able to attend interview without having completed the Declaration of Interest form.

At your interview, you will be assessed on how your skillset and experience align with the essential and desirable criteria of this role.

We will try and offer as much flexibility as we can, but it may not be possible to offer alternative dates for assessments or interviews. You are therefore asked to note the timetables provided under the ‘about this role’ section. Please note dates may be subject to change and we reserve the right to close the job earlier than advertised.

Please note that if you are successful in your application, you will be asked to list any interests you have which may be relevant to this role and consider any potential conflicts of interest. Your provisional offer will also be subject to right to work checks, providing two satisfactory references and obtaining the relevant security clearance level. A formal offer will then follow. Please do not provide notice to your employer until the formal offer has been accepted.

If you have any questions or would like an informal chat about the role before applying, please contact: recruitment@icrir.independent-inquiry.uk

Disabled Candidate Interview Scheme

We are committed to being an inclusive employer with a diverse workforce. We will offer an interview to any applicant with a disability who has indicated they would like to take part in our Disability Interview Scheme, provided they meet the essential criteria for the post as set out on the Person Specification page. Please let us know if this applies to you when submitting your application. If you need any reasonable adjustments to take part in our selection processes, please contact recruitment@icrir.independent-inquiry.uk

Merit Lists

If we identify more appointable candidates than we currently have posts available, we will hold applicant details on a reserve list from which further appointments can be made for a period of 12 months. This may include roles at a lower pay band.

If you don't want to be added to the reserve list, please contact recruitment@icrir.independent-inquiry.uk
