Welcome! Fáilte! Fair fa ye! Croeso!

The Independent Commission for Reconciliation and Information Recovery (ICRIR) has been set up to provide information to families, victims and survivors of Troubles-related deaths and serious injury, and to work towards reconciliation for all parties.

I accepted the role of Chief Commissioner because I believe this is worth doing. All those affected by the Troubles/Conflict need the legacy of the past to be properly dealt with. Previous attempts to address this have failed but that doesn't mean we can simply give up.

The importance of reconciliation is known by all those who have been affected by the Troubles and its legacy. For each and every person, that will mean something different. I want the Commission to best serve the people of Northern Ireland and beyond.

I believe we have a real opportunity here to deliver the answers that people are looking for. To do this, we need to build an independent organisation that's founded on integrity, expertise, and fairness.

Best wishes,

Sir Declan Morgan, Chief Commissioner

Who we are

The Independent Commission for Reconciliation and Information Recovery is an independent organisation that has been established to recover information about Troubles-related deaths and serious injuries to families, victims, and survivors and to promote reconciliation.

We are building the Commission and hiring more staff now that we have begun receiving cases.

We are building a values-led organisation. We operate with integrity, impartiality, openness, accountability, and respect, as set out in our Code of Conduct. This is reflected in our fair and open recruitment processes. We encourage people to join us across all backgrounds, communities and faiths to help us deliver.

The Commission is primarily based in Belfast, with further operational sites in Northern Ireland and London. Travel to all locations will be required, but hybrid working arrangements will help us support a range of flexible working patterns. This is an exciting opportunity to join an organisation with a unique and vital remit.

The Commission is formed of seven Commissioners, the Chief Commissioner, Sir Declan Morgan, the Chief Executive Officer, Louise Warde Hunter and the Commissioner for Investigations, Peter Sheridan, as well as four Non-Executive Commissioners to provide challenge and scrutiny to the executive team.

We are committed to creating a diverse and inclusive workplace. We welcome applications from all communities and backgrounds, including underrepresented groups. We value diversity in our workforce as it enhances our ability to serve the communities of Northern Ireland and the United Kingdom.

ICRIR's Code of Conduct

- Integrity
- Impartiality
- Openness
- Accountability
- Respect

The Commission's work will:

- Investigate deaths and other serious Troubles-related incidents, where requested, including deciding whether a criminal investigation should be part of the investigation.
- As part of investigations, give the opportunity for individuals to make personal statements on how the incidents have affected them.
- Require that any information necessary for our work is provided by PSNI, the security services, the Northern Ireland Office or any other public body and require that any person comes to the Commission to provide information.
- Use police powers, where appropriate, including to secure evidence, arrest, and question suspects.
- Produce and publish reports setting out the findings that have been determined from the investigations and addressing questions that have been raised by those making the request.
- Refer deaths and other serious Troubles-related incidents to prosecutors, where appropriate.
- Produce a record of deaths that were caused by incidents during the Troubles, and strive, through all it does, to promote reconciliation.

In addition to its principal objective to promote reconciliation, the Commission has agreed that a trauma-informed approach should be taken in all its work and that it should follow three essential principles:

- Compliance with the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR);

- Respect for the principles of the 1998 Belfast Good Friday Agreement; and
- Focus on providing useful information to those affected by the Troubles.

The Recruitment Process

All applications for employment are considered strictly on the basis of merit. This job description should not be taken as constituting conditions of employment. You should consider if you can meet the values in the ICRIR Code of Conduct, especially in relation to any conflicts of interest that you might have. More information can be found at ICRIR Code of Conduct – Independent Commission for Reconciliation & Information Recovery

Additional information received after the closing date will not be considered. Failure to provide sufficient information in support of an application prior to the closing date will not be considered as grounds for an appeal if an applicant is not shortlisted for interview.

The selection and interview process will consist of two stages as detailed below:

Stage 1: Sift

Your application will be assessed against the criteria outlined in the Person Specification above, as well as your responses to the application questions.

Please provide a CV setting out your career history, with key responsibilities and achievements. You will be asked to provide reasons for any gaps.

Please also answer all application questions, clearly demonstrating how you meet the essential and desirable criteria. You should ensure that you include dates as evidence of how your experience meets each criteria.

Stage 2: Exercise and Interview

Successful candidates who meet the required standard at sift will be invited to interview. Please note, the interview will consist of situational and competency-based questions and candidates should familiarise themselves with how to answer giving STAR responses (the panel will be looking for the scenario, the task to be completed, the action you took and the result/outcome)

For candidates proceeding to interview, candidates will be asked to complete a Declaration of Interest form. Please note, candidates will not be able to attend interview without having completed the Declaration of Interest form.

At your interview, you will be assessed on how your skillset and experience align with the essential and desirable criteria of this role.

We will try and offer as much flexibility as we can, but it may not be possible to offer alternative dates for assessments or interviews. You are therefore asked to note the timetables provided under the 'about this role' section. Please note dates may be subject to change and we reserve the right to close the job earlier than advertised.

Please note that if you are successful in your application, you will be asked to list any interests you have which may be relevant to this role and consider any potential conflicts of interest. Your provisional offer will also be subject to right to work checks, providing two satisfactory references and obtaining the relevant security clearance level. A formal offer will then follow. Please do not provide notice to your employer until the formal offer has been accepted.

If you have any questions or would like an informal chat about the role before applying, please contact: recruitment@icrir.independent-inquiry.uk

Disabled Candidate Interview Scheme

We are committed to being an inclusive employer with a diverse workforce. We will offer an interview to any applicant with a disability who has indicated they would like to take part in our Disability Interview Scheme, provided they meet the essential criteria for the post as set out on the Person Specification page. Please let us know if this applies to you when submitting your application. If you need any reasonable adjustments to take part in our selection processes, please contact recruitment@icrir.independent-inquiry.uk

Merit Lists

If we identify more appointable candidates than we currently have posts available, we will hold applicant details on a reserve list from which further appointments can be made for a period of 12 months. This may include roles at a lower pay band.

If you don't want to be added to the reserve list, please contact recruitment@icrir.independent-inquiry.uk
